

Indiana State University
Community Engagement Activities
Department Annual Report
2006

Project Name:

Practica, Internship, Supervised Fieldwork, Clinical Assistantships

Description

Supervised clinical practice in various community agency, college, and school settings.

How do you see community engagement activities fitting in with your department in the future?

Community engagement of the sort described above is part of what we do and is required by our professional practice curricula – these activities will continue.

What do you feel has been the impact of the project?

Enhanced mental health and coping strategies among participating community clients.

Strengthened relationships between service providing agencies and members of the ISU community

Faculty involved with students in this project outside of class

Activities occur outside of the department; however, all activities are in the context of credit-bearing graduate practica, internships, and field work experiences or in the context of contracted assistantships within community colleges and agencies.

Who from the community is involved?

Practicing school counselors, mental health counselors, and counseling psychologists at the agencies/schools involved.

Who from ISU is involved?

All counseling students and supervising faculty members.
