

Indiana State University
Community Engagement Activities
Department Annual Report
2005

Project Name:
Holocaust Museum

Description

Interior Design students worked with the Holocaust Museum Board of Directors and Eva Kor to plan and develop interior spaces for the new replacement Holocaust Museum.

How do you see community engagement activities fitting in with your department in the future?

Community Engagement has always been an integral part of the Family and Consumer Sciences Departments mission for over 90 years.

What do you feel has been the impact of the project?

Actual experience with real life need in the community.

Faculty involved with students in this project outside of class

Mary Sterling, Coordinator Interior Design

Who from the community is involved?

Holocaust Museum Board of Directors and Eva Kor.

Who from ISU is involved?

Interior Design students and faculty.

Number of Students	Where it takes/took place	Is this activity ongoing
15	Terre Haute, IN	No

Indiana State University
Community Engagement Activities
Department Annual Report
2005

Project Name:

St. Mary of the Woods Annual Health Fair

Description

Students of the FCS 422, Nutrition through the Life Cycle practicum class set up booth to help assess nutrition indices of the faculty, staff, and students of St. Mary's.

How do you see community engagement activities fitting in with your department in the future?

Community Engagement has always been and will continue to be an integral part of every program in Family and Consumer Sciences.

What do you feel has been the impact of the project?

Helped participants make lifestyle changes to improve health and wellness.

Faculty involved with students in this project outside of class

Dr. Rao Ivaturi

Who from the community is involved?

Faculty, Staff and Students from St. Mary of the Woods College

Who from ISU is involved?

Dr. Rao Ivaturi
Students from the FCS 422 class

Number of Students	Where it takes/took place	Is this activity ongoing
8	St. Mary of the Woods College	Yes

Indiana State University
Community Engagement Activities
Department Annual Report
2005

Project Name:
Matter in Motion

Description

Community awareness of employment career opportunities available in Wabash Valley

How do you see community engagement activities fitting in with your department in the future?

Community Engagement activities are an integral part of the Family and Consumer Sciences Department currently and will continue to be in the future.

What do you feel has been the impact of the project?

Increased awareness of career opportunities in Food and Nutrition careers. Ages were from the elderly to young children.

Faculty involved with students in this project outside of class

Dr. Lynn Duerr

Who from the community is involved?

Over 200 participants including students, adults, and children from Wabash Valley.

Who from ISU is involved?

FCS 325 students and faculty

Number of Students	Where it takes/took place	Is this activity ongoing
7	Ivy Tech State College	No

Indiana State University
Community Engagement Activities
Department Annual Report
2005

Project Name:
ISU Health Fair

Description

Nutrition assessment including BMI, height, weight, glucose monitoring and nutrition indices for participants.

How do you see community engagement activities fitting in with your department in the future?

Community Engagement has always been and will continue to be an integral part of the Family and Consumer Sciences programs.

What do you feel has been the impact of the project?

Quality of life changes for participants. Hands on experiences for students.

Faculty involved with students in this project outside of class

Carol Reed, RD, Sarah Hawkins, RD, Lynn Duerr, RD

Who from the community is involved?

ISU faculty, staff and students and community members were also invited.

Who from ISU is involved?

FCS Food and Nutrition Club

Number of Students	Where it takes/took place	Is this activity ongoing
17	ISU	No

Indiana State University
Community Engagement Activities
Department Annual Report
2005

Project Name:

Inservice Training for Pfizer Employees

Description

Nutritional assessment and recommendations for life style changes to improve health.

How do you see community engagement activities fitting in with your department in the future?

Community Engagement activities have always been and will continue to be an integral part of FCS programs.

What do you feel has been the impact of the project?

Students discussed findings and made recommendations to improve quality of health with employees. Student interaction with employees.

Faculty involved with students in this project outside of class

Carol Reed, RD

Who from the community is involved?

Employees and administrators from Pfizer

Who from ISU is involved?

FCS 434 students

Number of Students	Where it takes/took place	Is this activity ongoing
4	Pfizer Corporation	Yes

Indiana State University
Community Engagement Activities
Department Annual Report
2005

Project Name:

Washington Alternative School

Description

Students planned and gave Christmas party for parents and children in the Alternative School Nursery Program. Pictures were taken with Santa for parents who otherwise might not have such an opportunity with their babies.

How do you see community engagement activities fitting in with your department in the future?

Community Engagement activities continue to be an integral part of the FCS mission and has been for over 90 years.

What do you feel has been the impact of the project?

Single high school parents felt someone cared about them and their babies.

Faculty involved with students in this project outside of class

Dr. Sarah Hawkins, Dr. Peggy Engelbach

Who from the community is involved?

Parents, students and faculty from Washington Alternative School

Who from ISU is involved?

Phi Upsilon Omicron Honorary Students.

Number of Students	Where it takes/took place	Is this activity ongoing
15	Washington Alternative School	Yes

Indiana State University
Community Engagement Activities
Department Annual Report
2005

Project Name:

First Baptist Church Wednesday Night Fellowship Dinner

Description

Each Wednesday, Food Service Management and Dietetics students plan menus and assist in food preparation for over 100 guests.

This is a quantity food service management project.

How do you see community engagement activities fitting in with your department in the future?

Community Engagement activities continue to be an integral part of the FCS mission and will be in the future.

What do you feel has been the impact of the project?

Students have the actual experience of planning a real life quantity food service activity rather than classroom scenarios.

Faculty involved with students in this project outside of class

Lynn Duerr, RD, Carol Reed, RD.

Who from the community is involved?

First Baptist Church members.

Who from ISU is involved?

FCS Food Service Management and Dietetics Students.

Number of Students	Where it takes/took place	Is this activity ongoing
17	First Baptist Church, East Poplar St. Terre Haute	Yes

Indiana State University
Community Engagement Activities
Department Annual Report
2005

Project Name:

St. Anne's Diabetes Clinic

Description

Free diabetes for indigent care. Instruction is given on diabetic diets and recommendations for eating patterns to improve health.

How do you see community engagement activities fitting in with your department in the future?

Community Engagement activities have always been an integral part of the FCS mission and will continue in the future.

What do you feel has been the impact of the project?

Dietetic students have a real life experience working with clients from low income communities.

Faculty involved with students in this project outside of class

Dr. Sarah Hawkins

Who from the community is involved?

Participants from the St. Anne's community.

Who from ISU is involved?

Junior and Senior Dietetic students.

Number of Students	Where it takes/took place	Is this activity ongoing
15	St. Anne's Clinic, 14th and Locust, Terre Haute	Yes

Indiana State University
Community Engagement Activities
Department Annual Report
2005

Project Name:

Vigo County Head Start Kitchen Project

Description

Faculty and students were asked to evaluate menus according to government requirements and survey kitchen for sanitation compliance.

How do you see community engagement activities fitting in with your department in the future?

Continues to be an integral part of FCS mission now and in the future.

What do you feel has been the impact of the project?

Excellant opportunity to experience community agencies with government and health department compliances.

Faculty involved with students in this project outside of class

Dr. Lynn Duerr, RD, Carol Reed, RD.

Who from the community is involved?

Vigo County Head Start Administrators.

Who from ISU is involved?

Dietetic program junior and seniors.

Number of Students	Where it takes/took place	Is this activity ongoing
18	Vigo County Head Start Facility	No

Indiana State University
Community Engagement Activities
Department Annual Report
2005

Project Name:

Health Coalition Fair -Ryves Hall

Description

Dietetics students did complete nutrition screening for all participants including glucose monitoring, cholesterol, BMI, and weight.

How do you see community engagement activities fitting in with your department in the future?

Continues to be an integral part of the FCS mission now and in the future.

What do you feel has been the impact of the project?

Students experienced nutritional assessment activities with real clients and were able to discuss results and make recommendations to improve life styles.

Faculty involved with students in this project outside of class

Dr. Rao Ivaturi

Who from the community is involved?

Over 300 participants from throughout Terre Haute.
Additional involvement came from Minority Health Coalition, WIC Agency, HeadStart Agency, ISU Athletic Dept., ISU Child Care Center, 4-C's

Who from ISU is involved?

Dr. Rao Ivaturi and students from hi FCS 422 class.

Number of Students	Where it takes/took place	Is this activity ongoing
8	Ryves Hall, Terre Haute	Yes

Indiana State University
Community Engagement Activities
Department Annual Report
2005

Project Name:
Plate Waste Study

Description

Graduate student did a Plate Waste Study for Union Hospital for the Director of Nutritional Services.

How do you see community engagement activities fitting in with your department in the future?

Continues to be an integral part of the FCS mission now and in the future.

What do you feel has been the impact of the project?

Improvements will be included in the future to alleviate wasted food and improve efficiency for Union Hospital Cafeterias.

Faculty involved with students in this project outside of class

Dr. Sarah Hawkins

Who from the community is involved?

Administration of Dietary Services Union Hospital

Who from ISU is involved?

ISU Graduate Student, Jeff Brown

Number of Students	Where it takes/took place	Is this activity ongoing
1	Union Hospital, Terre Haute	No

Indiana State University
Community Engagement Activities
Department Annual Report
2005

Project Name:

Nutrition Support-Regional Hospital

Description

International Graduate Student did a study on nutritional support requested by Regional Hospital Administration.

How do you see community engagement activities fitting in with your department in the future?

Continues to be an integral part of the FCS mission now and in the future.

What do you feel has been the impact of the project?

Nurses and Doctors were made aware of nutritional services that could help their patients with better use of Dietician's expertise. Especially on tubular feeding recommendations.

Faculty involved with students in this project outside of class

Dr. Sarah Hawkins

Who from the community is involved?

Administrators from Regional Hospital, Dietary Staff

Who from ISU is involved?

International Dietetics Graduate Student, Akhila Gullapuram.

Number of Students	Where it takes/took place	Is this activity ongoing
1	Regional Hospital, Terre Haute	No

Indiana State University
Community Engagement Activities
Department Annual Report
2005

Project Name:
Doughmakers Factory Sales

Description

Over 40 FCS students assist in various capacities with Doughmakers Spring and Fall Factory Sales.

How do you see community engagement activities fitting in with your department in the future?

Continues to be an integral part of the FCS mission now and in the future.

What do you feel has been the impact of the project?

Students experience large company activity first hand.

Faculty involved with students in this project outside of class

Dr. Frederica Kramer, Dr. Lynn Duerr, Dr. Sarah Hawkins

Who from the community is involved?

Over 4,000 consumers at the Sales and Doughmakers employees and owners.

Who from ISU is involved?

40 Undergraduate and Graduate FCS students.

Number of Students	Where it takes/took place	Is this activity ongoing
40	Doughmakers Factory, Industrial Park, Terre Haute	Yes

Indiana State University
Community Engagement Activities
Department Annual Report
2005

Project Name:

Arts Illiana Grantsmanship Workshop

Description

A 4 hour grantsmanship workshop was held for guests of Arts Illiana.

How do you see community engagement activities fitting in with your department in the future?

Continues to be an integral part of the FCS mission now and in the future.

What do you feel has been the impact of the project?

Arts Illiana and patrons will now be able to write better grant proposals to secure funds in the future for their individual projects. This will impact the cultural activities of Arts Illiana.

Faculty involved with students in this project outside of class

Dr. Frederica Kramer

Who from the community is involved?

Guests of Arts Illiana and Board members.

Who from ISU is involved?

Dr. Frederica Kramer

Number of Students	Where it takes/took place	Is this activity ongoing
0	FCS building, ISU, Terre Haute	No

Indiana State University
Community Engagement Activities
Department Annual Report
2005

Project Name:

Terre Haute Women's Department Club

Description

Conducted a day long grantsmanship workshop for board members of the Terre Haute Women's Department Club.

How do you see community engagement activities fitting in with your department in the future?

Continues to be an integral part of the FCS mission now and in the future.

What do you feel has been the impact of the project?

Members will be able to write better grant proposals and secure funds for upkeep and renovation of the Historic WDC Home.

Faculty involved with students in this project outside of class

Dr. Frederica Kramer

Who from the community is involved?

15 Board members of the Terre Haute Women's Department Club

Who from ISU is involved?

Dr. Frederica Kramer

Number of Students	Where it takes/took place	Is this activity ongoing
0	Terre Haute Women's Department Club, S. 6th St.	No

Indiana State University
Community Engagement Activities
Department Annual Report
2005

Project Name:

ISU Eating Disorders Awareness Week

Description

Faculty provided counseling of clients with eating disorders

How do you see community engagement activities fitting in with your department in the future?

Continues to be an integral part of the FCS mission now and in the future.

What do you feel has been the impact of the project?

Using a Registered Dietician's knowledge of Eating Disorders and recommendations should help clients with this serious health problem.

Faculty involved with students in this project outside of class

Dr. Sarah Hawkins, RD

Who from the community is involved?

Participants in awareness week activities.

Who from ISU is involved?

Coordinator Dietetics program , Dr. Sarah Hawkins, RD

Number of Students	Where it takes/took place	Is this activity ongoing
0	ISU Counseling Center	No

Indiana State University
Community Engagement Activities
Department Annual Report
2005

Project Name:

CARE: Communities Against Rape Initiative In-School Component

Description

In 2004-2005, conducted two in-service workshops for 120 Indiana teachers, coaches, counselors, school nurses and administrators for prevention of rape and sexual assault among youth ages 11-19. Instruction was provided for use of the CARE Curriculum Module.

How do you see community engagement activities fitting in with your department in the future?

Continues to be an integral part of the FCS mission now and for the future.

What do you feel has been the impact of the project?

From the past 8 years of evaluations we know teaching this curriculum makes a positive impact on knowledge and attitudes about rape and sexual assault among school age students. Over 1,000 teachers have been impacted by this project in the past 8 year

Faculty involved with students in this project outside of class

Dr. Frederica Kramer and Alyson McIntyre, CARE Administrative Program Specialist.

Who from the community is involved?

School personnel from an 80 mile radius from the Terre Haute area and a 100 mile radius around the Marion School Cooperation.

Who from ISU is involved?

Staff and Director of CARE Project.

Number of Students	Where it takes/took place	Is this activity ongoing
10	Terre Haute and Marion, IN	Yes