Community Engagement Activities
Department Annual Report
2006

Project Name:
Human Rights Day

Description

An annual event that brings hundreds of students and local residents to campus to explore a wide range of human rights/human dignity questions.

How do you see community engagement activities fitting in with your department in the future?

Yes. We plan to continue this program.

What do you feel has been the impact of the project?

It increases the profile of ISU within the community and specifically with respect to prospective students. It also brings together community organizations in a collaborative day of celebration for human rights issues.

Faculty involved with students in this project outside of class

Yes.

Who from the community is involved?

Students from local HS/MS and community leaders.

Who from ISU is involved?

The primary faculty contact is C. Norman. However, faculty from across the social sciences and campus participate.
