

Indiana State University
Community Engagement Activities
Department Annual Report
2007

Project Name:
Assistantships

Description

Various graduate programs provide graduate students to other institutions in the area (Rose Hulman, St. Mary's, Hamilton Center, etc.) to serve as counselors, assistant coaches and other personnel.

How do you see community engagement activities fitting in with your department in the future?

These types of activities will continue and hopefully grow. It is a win-win for our students and the various organizations where these students work. It provides assistantship dollars to help fund our students from other than university dollars.

What do you feel has been the impact of the project?

Provides for numerous inter-institutional cooperation and provides realistic experiences for our graduate students.

Faculty involved with students in this project outside of class

Numerous faculty from the specific departments

Who from the community is involved?

St. Mary of the Woods, Rose Hulman, Hamilton Center (Terre Haute, Plainfield, Brazil, and Sullivan), Union Hospital, Ivy Tech, Family Practice Residency, Samaritan Center, IU Med Center Cancer Treatment, Veterans Administration Outpatient Center

Who from ISU is involved?

Students from numerous graduate departments (i.e. Counseling, Psychology, Physical Education, Athletic Training) to name a few.

Number of Students	Where it takes/took place	Is this activity ongoing
26	Numerous locations	Yes

Indiana State University
Community Engagement Activities
Department Annual Report
2007

Project Name:

Internships

Description

This experience are part of various graduate programs.

How do you see community engagement activities fitting in with your department in the future?

These activities are critical elements of many master's and doctoral programs.

What do you feel has been the impact of the project?

Promotes interaction of our students with various community agencies, businesses and other organizations.
Provides real world experiences for our students and a sharing of new techniques and concepts for the community participants.

Faculty involved with students in this project outside of class

Numerous faculty from a wide variety of departments

Who from the community is involved?

There are a variety of agencies and organizations involved.

Who from ISU is involved?

Various graduate programs - See specific departmental reports

Number of Students	Where it takes/took place	Is this activity ongoing
not able to determine	Everywhere	Yes